Short profile of the Organisation: www.maynoothuniversity.ie/social-sciences-institute and www.maynoothuniversity.ie Maynooth University enjoys an eminent reputation as a centre for research excellence and influence in the social sciences, and is committed to supporting high quality fundamental research, publicly engaged scholarship, evidence informed policy making and innovation based commerce and enterprise.
The Maynooth University Social Sciences Institute (MUSSI) brings together, consolidates and scales existing social scientific research expertise and research infrastructure across the campus as part of a single enterprise.
To date, over 300 researchers have been affiliated to NIRSA, with over 150 of them receiving competitive funding from the Institute itself, and many others receiving smaller funds for travel and research expenses from supportive third parties. The research is organised into three main research clusters; Sustaining Communities; Building Knowledge Economies; and Planning Environments. Over 250 projects have received external funding since 2001, totalling over €55m of which over €25m has come directly to MUSSI partners. These awards have investigated projects in:

- Gender Equality
- Migration and Diaspora Strategies
- Evidence Based Planning
- Data Visualisations (Visualisation Partner for Census 2011 Ireland)
- Political Economy, Work & Working Lives
- Urban/Suburban Studies
- Urban and Regional Development
- Economic & Regional Geographies
- Spaces of Activism, Human Rights
- Community & Spatial Planning in the Irish Border Region
- Gender Equality in HEI's, Housing, Homelessness, Family, Care, Socio-Economic Inequalities

The Institute has received Programme for Research in Third Level Institutions (PRTL) 2, 4 and 5 funding, is the recipient of two European Research Council (ERC) Investigator Awards, and has secured awards from virtually every significant national and European funding source, including the Irish Research Council (IRC), the Horizon 2020 programme, ESPON, Interreg, and URBACT. The Institute has also built-up numerous national research platforms (for example, the Irish Social Sciences Platform (ISSP), the International Centre for Local and Regional Development (ICLRD), and the Digital Repository of Ireland (DRI) and spawned the SFI-funded National Centre for Geocomputation (NCG). The Institute has also established two significant national research resources: the All-Island Research Observatory (AIRO) that produces all-island spatial datasets and specialist tools to aid their analyses and undertakes academic and applied mapping research; and the Irish Qualitative Data Archive (IQDA) that archives social science data in media other than machine readable datasets.
